

Salt Water

Words & Music by Danielle Bisutti & Dan Weniger (ASCAP & BMI Copyright © 2006)

Please excuse
My shoes are filled with mud
I've been tossed around
Washed up by this flood
My eyes don't need a reason
Give them a try
Just one mention of your name
And they're a sweet goodbye

All is Salt Water
Your fading laugh
The ocean sky
All is salt water
The sweat and tears
Our last goodbye

Let me in
Disregard the lonely state I'm living in
Let me in
I find it hard to lose the fate I've taken in

Can't you see
I've given all I can
I'm just so fearful
That no one will understand
My heart is left in pieces
And I don't know why
Just feel there's something more
I've got to do with my life

This bird's broken wings
Will one day fly again
Far from heaven
The earth below
My only friend
Won't you pull me from the wreckage
Hold me safely in
